Business Start-Up.

The steps to sign up as a contractor

Contact Imelda Prendergast at OSK on prendergasti@osk.ie or call 01 439 4200 to arrange a consultation to discuss the most efficient set-up option for you.

Most contractors choose the Limited Company option which involves incorporating a company. OSK will need the following:

1. Company name
2. Details of company director and company secretary
3. Registered office address and trading address
4. Once incorporated OSK will then register the company for corporation tax, VAT and PAYE

Contracting in Ireland from overseas.

- Advice on obligations to deduct payroll taxes
- Advice on conditions to apply for exemption from the obligation to operate payroll taxes - making the application for the exemption if conditions are met
- Registering the employer for payroll taxes
- Processing the payroll and filing payroll returns
- Advice on payment of social security

Contracting Overseas.

- Advice on Irish tax residency status, conditions for becoming or remaining non-resident, and available reliefs such as split-year treatment, tax credits, and double tax relief.
- We also advise on the timing of departure and return to Ireland, as this can significantly affect residency status and overall tax liability.
